REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS

To the One Hundred and Forty-fourth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

The Committee on Charters respectfully reports that it met on April 16, 1928, at the call of the Convener and organized by the election of the Rev. J. O. McIlhenny, D.D., as Chairman and the Rev. Walter C. Pugh as Secretary.

The Committee considered the application of the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Paul's Memorial Church, Upper Providence, changing the name of the Corporation to S. Paul's Memorial Episcopal Church, Oaks, Pennsylvania, and making sundry other changes in the Articles.

The Secretary of the Convention reports that during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

On February 1st, the Canonical requirement, only 49 of the 220 Parish and Mission Reports were returned, several of which were very incomplete. He would remind you again that these are not merely the Report of the Accounting Warden, as so many seem to think, but of all the Parish activities and interests. Even if details are not printed, the Report is kept as a permanent record and should be complete.

In addition to the notice of the meeting of the Convention sent out on March 1st, he sent a further notice on April 1, 1928, of the proposed election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne continued the

Sec. V. Lay Representatives.

Each Organized Mission of the Diocese, and each Parochial Chapel or Mission in the Diocese reporting not less than one hundred Communicants, and having paid in full its assessment for the Episcopal Fund for the previous calendar year, may send to the Convention one Lay Representative, a Communicant of this Church, chosen annually at a meeting of the adult members of the congregation of said Mission or Chapel, from their own number, who shall have all the rights of a Lay Deputy, except the right to vote on any question or in any election. The appointment of a Lay Representative and his Alternate shall be certified in writing by the Chairman and Secretary of the said meeting, and the Certificate shall state that the Representative is a Communicant of this Church, and has been chosen in accordance with the above provisions. The Certificate shall be in duplicate, one copy to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Convention at least one week before the meeting of the Convention, and the other to be given to the Lay Representative. A copy of this section and a notice of the meeting of the Convention shall be sent annually by the Secretary to each Mission and Chapel entitled to send a Representative.

RESOLVED: That this Convention endorses the action of the General Convention in bringing the revision to an end in 1928, in order that the New Prayer Book may be promptly put into the hands of the Laity.

Dr. Foley continued the Report and offered Resolution 2:

RESOLVED: That we dissent from the combination of the Baptismal Offices into one, as tending to greater confusion and difficulty in their use.

The Rev. G. G. Bartlett offered the following Substitute in the form of a Memorial to the General Convention, which was accepted by the Committee:

The Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, in session at the Church of the Holy Trinity in Philadelphia, on this the second day of May, 1928, hereby memorializes General Convention, expressing its hope that the proposed revision of the Baptismal Offices in the Book of Common Prayer may not be ratified in its present form.

We are aware of the important arguments in favor of completing the whole task of revision without further delay. And we realize that if this is to be accomplished, only two procedures are open: the first, to ratify the present proposals in toto; the second, to reject them in toto. Amendments at this stage would involve at least a three years' delay. But this choice of alternatives applies to each integral part of the revision, taken by itself; so that the proposed Baptismal Office may be rejected without affecting any other parts of the revision. To do so would automatically restore the Baptismal Offices as in the Book of 1892. We venture to express our judgment that, if the closure of revision this year indeed outweighs in importance all other considerations, a return to these older forms for Holy Baptism is preferable to the adoption of the new form. It appears to us, however, that the issues at stake are more weighty than the question of three or six years' delay.

Our reasons for dissenting from the proposed revision of these Offices center round its most radical feature,—the merging into one of the Office for the Baptism of Infants and that for the Baptism of Adults.

1. This fusion will prove perplexing in use,—to the officiating minister, and far more so to the lay-folk participating. Any step that tends to make the Book of Common Prayer less plain and simple to the people seems to us a step in the wrong direction and indeed a departure from the original and controlling purpose of the Book.

2. The fusion appears to us a mistake from the point of view of the Art of Public Worship. The canon of unity applies in this art no less than in any other. To blend two themes that are quite different in one office is to endanger that directness and singleness of impression without which a religious service is reduced to little more than an ineffective form.

3. The fusion quite overlooks the differences between the two, in theological significance and practical purport. They are alike ministrations of the one Sacrament, and look to the same moral and spiritual result; but their background and atmosphere are different. In the case of adults, Baptism has relation to forgiveness and cleansing from actual sin, and deals with those who already manifest the spiritual life in repentance and faith. In the case of infants, the reception into the Christian household provides a safeguard against future sin, and this forward outlook is indicated by the duties of Christian Nurture imposed upon the sponsors. The merging of two Offices, so distinct in their implications, tends to confusion of thought.

But, what is even more important, it misses the emphasis which should be placed upon the Church's relation to baptized infants. The responsibility of the community for the children thus admitted to the fellowship is too little felt and recognized, and it is minimized and obscured if the special Office be absorbed in a more general one. This pastoral care needs greater, not less, attention. The provision of an independent service symbolizes and stresses the distinction of the rite as the basis of Christian training, and the special obligation then assumed by the congregation. To blend into one two services which have such different practical aims seems to us to blur what is most characteristic and effective in each.

To sacrifice these principles in order to secure the advantage of eliminating one or two misleading phrases seems too large a price to pay, and is likely to delay indefinitely a more thorough revision hereafter.

4. Finally, we call attention to the fact that the Book of Common Prayer is not the sole and exclusive possession of the American Church: it belongs to the whole Anglican Communion. We have, to be sure, the right to adapt that common book to our local needs; the very right which the Mother Church of England asserted for herself in Article XXXIV. But it seems to us that we ought to exercise this right with caution, and endeavor, wherever the need for change is not clear and imperative, to maintain unbroken the Anglican usage, so far at least as its larger features are concerned. And it remains a fact that in none of the revisions hitherto made or undertaken, of the Book of Common Prayer,—save in this latest one of ours,—has it been proposed to merge into one the two offices of Holy Baptism.

For these reasons we present the prayer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania that the proposed revision of the Baptismal Offices be not ratified.

The undersigned unite in the request that the Convention of the Diocese should give consideration to the proposed Memorial, addressed to the General Convention, on the subject of the revision of the Offices of Holy Baptism in the Book of Common Prayer.

The Deputies proceeded to sign the Testimonial

We, whose names are hereunder written, fully sensible how important it is that the Sacred Order and Office of a Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony on this solemn occasion without partiality or affection, do, in the presence of Almighty God, testify that is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report, either for error in religion or for viciousness of life; and that we know of no impediment on account of which he ought not to be ordained and consecrated to that Holy Office. We do, moreover, jointly and severally declare that we believe him to be of such sufficiency in good learning, of such soundness in the Faith, and of such virtuous and pure manners and godly conversation, that he is apt and meet to exercise the Office of a Bishop to the honour of God and the edifying of His Church, and to be a wholesome example to the flock of Christ.

Building Improvements During the Year

Among the notable buildings erected during the last year mention should be made of the removal of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Queen Lane Manor to Oak Road, where a beautiful colonial Church has been erected in memory of the late Henry Waterston Brown and Alice Prestman Brown by their sons, Reynolds D., Henry I. and Theodore E. Brown. This Church was consecrated last October. At the same time a Parish building erected by the congregation was also dedicated. The latter building cost about $48,000 and the total improvement, including the value of the land, represents an investment of nearly $300,000.

At Trinity, Crescentville, where the Church was destroyed a few years ago by fire, a beautiful Church has been erected in memory of Eliza George Fisher, Ellen Fisher, James Logan Fisher and his wife, Mary Wilcocks Ingersoll Fisher.

At All Hallows, Wyncote, a splendid Parish Hall for community work at a cost of $115,000.

Trinity Church, Oxford, is erecting a commodious Parish House, which is sorely needed for the increasing work carried on in that historic Parish.

At St. John's Church, Norristown, the Church has been practically rebuilt and is now one of the most stately and churchly buildings in the country. A new Parish House has also been erected. The Church will be consecrated in a few months. The cost of the improvements in this Parish in the last few years would amount to about $350,000.

St. Joseph's Chapel and Community House, Gladwyn, built by the Church of the Redeemer, Lower Merion, has been given to the Diocese, free of all incumbrance, as a Mission of the Convocation of Chester.

During the week of January 22 St. Paul's Church, Chester, commemorated the 225th anniversary of its foundation. A feature of this notable anniversary was announcement of the completion of an Endowment Fund amounting to $100,000 which was presented as a Thank-Offering. This was a fitting testimonial to mark the devoted services of the Rector, the Rev. Dr. Taitt, for the past thirty-four years.

Church Farm School

Ten years ago the Church Farm School opened its doors to deserving boys. Today it has an enrollment of 105 boys. At the time the School was started, it was hoped that it could be built in ten years—this dream has been realized. The last building needed was given during the past month.

The Chapel, which is a memorial to the Rev. William R. Turner (a former rector of St. Paul's Church, Overbrook), and his wife, will be dedicated on June 1, at which time the School holds its Commencement Exercises, and will celebrate its Tenth Anniversary. Beginning that day a persistent effort will be made and continued for the next fifteen years to raise an Endowment Fund sufficiently large to carry on the work of the School for all time.

Pursuant of the resolution adopted at the last Convention, the merger of the Trustees of the Diocese and

The Church Foundation

The Church Foundation has been completed and the new charter has received the approval of the Court, under the name of "The Church Foundation." This charter and the by-laws were carefully compiled by our late Chancellor and appropriate action will be suggested to the Convention to complete our records.

The Board of Directors has been divided into three classes; and beginning with next year one-third will be elected annually by this Convention. Several wills have already been made in which bequests have been left to The Church Foundation and I trust you will remember this Corporation of the Diocese in making your wills.

The Cathedral

In accordance with the action taken at the last Convention, the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ has taken action and, recognizing the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America and the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, has accepted Canon XVI of the latter Church, entitled "Of the Cathedral Foundation." The formal resolution will be read by the Secretary so that it will be entered in the Journal as a matter of record.

Diocesan Day will be observed at the Cathedral site on Saturday, June 9, and all members of the Convention are invited to be present. At that time I hope to have some announcements of interest. I commend this project of Diocesan development to our people. Many Dioceses are engaged in building Cathedrals. If a few persons of wealth in this Diocese would give generously toward taking the initial steps, much could be accomplished toward the future erection of a Cathedral, also in co-ordinating and making better provision for some of our Diocesan Institutions, and in the extension of our Missionary work.

Philadelphia is undergoing marvellous changes. After a long period of preparation there seems to be a new spirit of progress. We see evidences of it on every side—in business, in our buildings, in city planning, in our University, Colleges and Schools, in endowments to cultivate music and art, in the wonderful new Museum of Art on the Parkway. This historic city seems to be finding itself, and will soon recover its former prestige.

In the Church we must not be found wanting. In this city, the birthplace of our Nation, it is important to keep alive the high traditions of our inheritance.

High Traditions of Our Inheritance

Here, where our Church was organized, we have an opportunity greater than any other city in our Nation to worthily present the Church in its historic continuity. We cannot over-emphasize the contribution that we might make, if we resolved that the time has come to take our proper place; and, while bending every effort to develop things that are material, and to encourage Science and Art, to realize that the most important is the spiritual value in life so that we shall not overlook the needed development of the work of the Church in its influence on the community in which we live and in the Nation which will forever look to this city as its birthplace.

As requested by the Convention I am filing for insertion in the Journal a report of the Diocesan Campaign for the year 1927. During the year we received in cash over $600,000 and paid out over $380,000, the balance is being paid on contracts awarded last year and others to be contracted during this year. We have refunded to the Diocese all interest charges paid on property acquired by the Diocese on the promise that the Campaign when inaugurated would pay for its purchase. (See p. 377.)

Of the program reported to the last Convention to be undertaken during 1927, the Parish House of St. Barnabas has been completed, a new Parish House for Trinity Mission, Collingdale, and the first unit of a Parish House built for Ascension Mission, Rhawnhurst. The contract for the Mission of the Redeemer, Springfield, has been signed and bids have been received for St. Mary's Mission, Chester. At the Home for Consumptives the residence for the Superintendent and the new wing for Nurses has been completed. The new Industrial Plant for the Galilee Mission is now occupied and St. Andrew's Chapel at State College is under construction. A new site for the Mission of the Transfiguration has been purchased and the frame Chapel moved there for temporary use. Plans for the new Dispensary at the Episcopal Hospital have been completed, and it is hoped that the contract will be awarded this spring. During the year it was also necessary to authorize the erection of the first unit of the Parish House of St. George's, Venango, which is now about completed and to take advantage of the opportunity to purchase a Church and Rectory for the Polish congregation of the Church of the Holy Redeemer.

In making our allocations for this year we have followed the same plan as last year. Acting with my Missionary Council of Advice we selected the Missions which in our judgment represented the most immediate needs; then we called together the Missionaries and each one presented his claim. We asked them to make their selections for this year, telling them that we would abide by their decision. I am proud of the Missionaries of this Diocese; for two successive years following the Apostolic injunction "in honor preferring one another" they unanimously selected without hesitation what they considered the most important, and in this City of Brotherly Love it is encouraging and refreshing to be able to report to this Convention that as much unanimity prevails in these meetings as in any of the Society of Friends. The Missionaries selected the same list recommended by the Bishop and the Deans of the Convocations. Therefore this year we have authorized and will plan to assist in enlarging or building the Parish House and Chapel of Holy Innocents, Tacony; the Rectory for St. James, Prospect Park, and the Parish House for St. John the Evangelist, South Philadelphia; enlarging or building new unit for Holy Sacrament, Highland Park; enlarging or building new unit for St. John the Evangelist, Essington; completing the Parish House of St. Gabriel's on the Boulevard, and building the first unit for the Mission of the Resurrection, Englewood.

Renewal of One-Year Pledges

The Campaign Committee has been criticized for not making a more vigorous effort to secure renewal of one-year pledges. Only in a few Parishes and Missions has a canvass been made, and we have received 281 pledges, amounting to $11,188.00. Of this, over $5,035.00 came from two parishes, which indicates that other Rectors and Parish Chairmen might secure renewals. Many of the one-year pledges were given by persons who could only afford to give small sums, and for one year. Considering the unemployment in our city we have been reluctant to urge an active canvass. We must rather depend on the Clergy to examine carefully the list of one-year contributors, and personally or through their Parish Chairmen visit those whom they think might be willing to contribute for a second year.

I am happy to say that in addition to the renewals reported, I have received since January 1 over $50,000.00 to be used for constructive work in some Missions represented on our Campaign program.

Frequently I hear of statements that have been made, which are so contrary to the facts, that one must either assume that the authors are entirely ignorant of the matters of which they speak, or that they have a serious misunderstanding which should be removed.

Finances of Diocese in Good Condition

May I then draw your attention to the report of the Department of Finance and of the Treasurer of the Diocese. These show that the Diocese has never been in such good financial condition as at present. In making this statement I am not referring to the fact that $600,000 was received during last year for constructive work in our Missions and Institutions as a result of the Campaign, nor to the fact that during the past four years as a Diocese you have also given $230,000 to the Japanese Reconstruction Fund, and $160,000 toward the deficit of the National Council. Nor do I include the Campaign for a million dollars on behalf of the Divinity School, which is not a Diocesan Institution.

I am now specifically referring to the Diocesan financial condition, which is concerned with the Budget of the Diocese authorized by the Convention and by the Executive Council. It is the duty of the Executive Council to carry out every mandate imposed upon it by this body. The Budget of the Diocese is met by the voluntary offerings of the Parishes and Missions which are divided equally between the Diocese and the National Council. I think it would be a safe rule in the future for the Convention not to authorize any additional expenditures on the Diocesan budget unless it provides some method for meeting the expense involved. Unless the amounts voluntarily given by the Parishes and Missions are increased to the extent of the obligation, the Executive Council is in the position of contracting in your name for obligations which it cannot meet, and if the Parishes do not correspondingly increase their voluntary offerings there is necessarily a deficit. At times the Diocese is also called upon to assume unexpected and emergency obligations. For instance, the exhibit at the Sesqui-Centennial cost about $4,000. It was hoped by the Committee in charge that this amount could be raised by voluntary contributions, but after carrying a deficit of $1,073.94 for a year and a half the Executive Council naturally had to assume the obligation and charge it off on the books. Several times we have also had to advance or loan money to protect Church property against foreclosure.

I am pleased, however, to report to the Convention that, though there was a deficit two years ago, during the last year we have practically eliminated it. According to the books there was an apparent deficit as of January 1 amounting to $8,683.81. As a credit we must take into consideration the fact that the Executive Council had to make two loans of $7,886.85 to protect the properties of the Church. These loans were made years ago. They are secured by mortgages and will eventually be paid in full. They are therefore to be considered as assets, and every business man will understand that the deficit is only $796.96; while if the Sesqui-Centennial Committee had succeeded in raising all the money for its expenditure there would have been a balance of nearly $300.00. I trust that this simple, clear and definite statement will put an end to all contrary reports. I am sure it will be received with interest and with thanksgiving by the members of this Convention.

Some of these statements also criticize unfairly an alleged increase in the expenditures of the Diocesan Budget. The only increase in appropriation for Missions since I became Diocesan is a slight increase ordered by this Convention in the salaries of Missionaries, but the total amount spent in any one year since that time shows an infinitesimal increase, the fluctuation being about a thousand dollars, and taking the last four years the average for that period would be slightly under what we expended in 1923.

Regarding the Institutions I want to state most emphatically that there has not been even one cent of increase in appropriations to any Institution during this period and that this year there has been a decrease in the appropriations to several of them amounting to over $4,000. It should be apparent to anyone who understands figures that the total amount reported each year naturally varies, inasmuch as our appropriations are made from voluntary offerings, and that there is no fixed appropriation to the Episcopal Hospital, but that all the voluntary offerings given for that purpose at Thanksgiving are reported with our Budget, although not part of our appropriations.

It has been a great encouragement to all of us to note that these offerings have increased during the past four years and that naturally makes the amount used for Diocesan Institutions seem larger, but it is only larger because of this voluntary outpouring of gifts for our great Hospital. Therefore, those who criticize and condemn the increase in the Budget are in reality suggesting that the voluntary offerings for the Episcopal Hospital should be reduced, and I am sure we would all protest against that. In fact, I do not think we have yet reached the standard in our Thanksgiving offerings and I hope they will steadily increase. In this connection may I say that I sincerely hope that the voluntary offerings of our Parishes and Missions will show such an increase that we may be able to add to the very meager stipend which is now paid to the Missionaries of the Diocese. I trust that as it is now apparent to everyone that there have been no such increases as have been currently reported that we will all stand shoulder to shoulder in a real effort to increase our voluntary offerings so that we can send larger contributions to the National Council and also to increase the salary of our Missionaries in the Diocese.

Some Causes for Increased Expenditures

Since I have become Bishop the only increased expenditures have been: First, a slight increase in the Department of Recruiting for the Ministry to give aid to students; second, an increase authorized by this Convention in the Department of Religious Education; and, third, a slight increase in the salary of Missionaries. A complete understanding of our financial condition demands some reference to the other Funds of the Diocese.

About eleven years ago there was an assessment laid on the Parishes and Missions by the General Convention for the Church Pension Fund. Ten years ago our Diocese paid $32,000; as reported in our last Journal it was $56,000 in 1926. This assessment is based on 7½ per cent. of the salary of the Clergy, so that this increase is due largely to increased salaries. Surely there is not a member of this Convention, clerical or lay, who objects to this increased assessment. We would all rejoice to seeing it materially increased.

It is said that the assessment for our Convention Fund is also much larger, that our expenses are nearly three times as much as twenty-five years ago, and double what they were about fourteen years ago.

Some years ago this Diocese paid only the traveling expenses of the Clerical Deputies to the General Convention. This was manifestly unjust and we decided to follow the custom in other Dioceses that could afford to pay the expenses of Lay Deputies, as well as Clerical, and to include allowances for hotel expenses. In a Canon we recognized this principle, and extended it to our Delegates to the Provincial Synod. These add to our Convention expenses, but no member of the Convention will question the justice of this provision.

I assume also that none will question the largely increased cost of providing for your luncheons, and other expenses incident to the Convention, including the printing of the Journal.

As to our Sustentation Fund, twenty-five years ago and ten years ago you were by Canon assisting twelve Parishes. By your own action you have increased the number to twenty-two, but no one can question the justice of your action. In fact, to take any figures of twenty-five years ago or ten years ago and hastily make comparison without a knowledge of the facts is most misleading. In the Episcopal Fund, for instance, by action of the Convention, your assessment covers about $2,000 per year as refund for expenses involved in repairing the Episcopal residence, and also for the annual deficit on same. Likewise your assessment for the Convention Fund must provide for the deficit in the Church House. We must also remember that the whole system of administration in the Diocese and in the National Church was changed a few years ago. In our Budget there are many items not to be found in the published reports of ten years ago, and unfair comparisons are made by those not conversant with the facts.

I have taken at random a few of our large Parishes and I find that current expenses have increased in the same ratio as the expenses of the Diocese. Surely it is reasonable to expect this, and for this very reason the percentage of the assessments for most of the funds are on the same ratio as twenty-five years ago. In the past quarter of a century a number of Parishes have increased $10,000 to $15,000 in their current expenses alone. Why should not the same ratio apply to other Parishes and to our Missions, and to the expenses of our Convention and other funds.

Parish Current Expenses Show Increases Also

If a Parish is accused of spending too much money for its music or other expenses, though the Rector may personally urge such expenditures, yet the Vestry must authorize it. In the Diocese the Convention fixes by Canon the basis of all assessments and of Canonical salaries for Missionaries, and the Executive Council can only pay appropriations out of the voluntary contributions of the Parishes and Missions for our Missionary work in the Diocese and in the National Church.

In presenting this clear and definite statement there is no thought of defending my policy, or vindicating the expenses of the administration. As administrative head of the Diocese, I am stating that I believe in the justice of every appropriation made by this Convention, and by the Executive Council out of the voluntary gifts sent in by our Parishes and Missions.

Confidence in Justice of Appropriations

What room is there for pessimism in a Diocese which during the past two years undertook a task greater than any other Diocese in the American Church has ever undertaken for its Missions and Institutions and is carrying out 100 per cent. of its program as far as the Missions of the Diocese are concerned. Suppose we had had a deficit of ten or twenty-five thousand dollars in a budget for the Diocese of about $180,000 in a year, that our people gave over $600,000 extra for our Missionary work in the Diocese! It surely would not have discouraged any of us. There were many false prophets who foretold such a result when we had our Diocesan Campaign. You should thank God and take courage over what you have been able to accomplish. I tell you frankly, Gentlemen of the Convention, that the man, who is a pessimist in speaking of the financial condition of this Diocese, owes it to himself and to the preservation of his own self-respect to inquire into the facts, and if he does not become an optimist and enter heartily into the support of the work you have undertaken and give it his unqualified support, then he must be one of the species of whom the poet says, "A man convinced against his will is of the same opinion still."

I therefore thank you for the earnest support you have given in carrying out thus far our constructive program and I pray that you will continue to give generously and enable us to carry it out in full. But, after all, the financial result would not be worth while unless we realized the revolutionary changes that are going on in our own Diocese, which have given new heart to our Missionaries and fill them with new hope and inspiration as they look forward to the future. None of us care for the work of the Church as expressed in terms of money; we only think of human needs and ministering to human souls. If you could go with me to the Institutions and Missions, where our Diocesan Campaign has brought new hope and new enthusiasm, you would feel amply rewarded and if you could go with me and see how the Budget of this Diocese consisting of your voluntary offerings is spent and how every cent of it is invested in ministrations that are worth while for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God you would thank God for what you saw and you would make it possible to do a larger work than we have ever dreamed of. The field is white to harvest, and what we need is more laborers in the vineyard and more laborers mean more Missionaries and more Missions. The Kingdom of God does not tarry—there can be no steps of retrogression, only the forward march in faith to do greater and better work.

Of the general Missionary situation little can be added to what has already been said. There is no assessment for General Missions—the funds are voluntarily given. I do not believe that the apportionment to this Diocese is equitable or just. A Committee appointed by the General Convention to consider a revision reported unanimously to the National Council in favor of a flat basis of apportionment, which would apply equally to all Dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions in proportion to the amount of their current expenses. This report was rejected by Council in favor of the present system, by which in fact a few of the large Dioceses are assessed a much greater proportion of their current expenses.

General Missionary Work of the Church

It is fair to say, however, that whatever basis might be fixed, the voluntary gifts in this Diocese would be far short of our quota. This in spite of the fact that many of our Parishes and Missions pay their apportionment in full. Some of our leading Parishes fail to pay their share; in most of these instances it is the result of the failure of the Rector and Vestry to properly support the Missionary undertakings of the Church. In some of them I am sure that neither the Rector nor the Vestry would plead that the congregation is too poor to give. Such a claim, if made, could not be sustained, as the apportionment is based on a percentage of their current expenses. If an earnest effort were made in every Parish and Mission to lead and encourage the people to give generously for our Missionary work I am sure that the offerings would show a great increase.

In referring to Missionary gifts, I am glad to say that the contributions of the women for the United Thank-Offering are moving steadily forward. At the present time, for the Triennium they amount in this Diocese to $67,487.52, an increase of $4000 over the corresponding period three years ago.

As a member of the National Council I represent the Province of Washington; but as your Bishop I should discuss questions of our general policy just as freely as before I was a member of the Council. Until the Synod meets next year it is not possible to ascertain whether or not it agrees with my convictions. It is a matter of general knowledge and regret that this year the National Council had to cut down our appropriations about $230,000 below that of last year. One cannot go into the detail of all the methods; suffice it to say that though there was a total cut in appropriations, in many departments there were notable increases over the amount spent last year. On the question as to where cuts shall be applied I stand firmly, in the National Council just as in the Diocese, by my conviction that the Missions must not suffer unless absolutely necessary. Therefore the cuts should be made in other departments.

I regret to say that I was practically alone in this contention. The Department of Religious Education was allotted $33,000 over the amount it spent last year; the Field Department $31,000; the Publicity Department $20,000; Social Service, Woman's Auxiliary and others a total of about $25,000 above the amount spent last year. All these increases naturally made correspondingly larger reductions necessary in Missionary appropriations.

In my opinion it was a general advance in appropriations over the expenses of last year excepting for the Missionary work of the Church. Is there any defense of such action? Naturally there must be, or eminent Bishops, Clergymen and Laymen would not vote for it. I will therefore give you verbatim what one leader said in defending these increases.

After a statement that he had formerly believed as I did, that the Missionary work of the Church had first claim, but had changed his mind, he continued, "It is better to take money away from the actual prosecution of the work in order to build up a body of people who know what it is all about and who may be educated in their duty to give."

As you represent the Parishes and Missions in this Diocese, I would be glad to know your opinion in this vital matter. Should our contributions for Missions be used principally for the Missionary work at home and abroad, or should our policy be to continue increasing the amounts spent by our various other Departments, and does such expenditure represent the primary object of our gifts?

Opinion of Parishes and Missions Welcomed

I am aware of the claim that much of the work of the Field Department, Religious Education, Publicity, etc., is Missionary work; but we cannot thus evade the issue. Before the days of our centralization our Missionary gifts were used for distinctly Missionary work. We have been steadily moving away from that old conception. Shall we go on, or is it time to call a halt? These are serious questions.

If your conviction is the same as mine, I will feel strengthened in my position; if you believe that the givers of the Church approve of the present method and if the Synod of this Province also thinks so I should in all fairness state these facts to the National Council.

I view with some alarm the present trend of our policy of concentration and I believe it should receive the serious consideration of our Dioceses and of the General Convention.

There has been much discussion about the Thirty-Nine Articles and a marked difference of opinion as to whether they should or should not be removed from the Prayer Book. Some are opposed to the removal on the ground that the Articles are a bulwark against a pro-Roman interpretation of the doctrines of the Church, and others base their opposition on the ground that such a removal would encourage radical interpretation against which the Articles are also a strong safeguard. It has been stated that if the final vote is in the affirmative and the Articles are removed from the Prayer Book that such a vote would not repeal them, as they would still be recognized in the Constitution and in the Canons. There is, however, some room for doubt as to whether the resolution adopted in the last Convention is the proper method of procedure. The mover of the resolution states that he had no intention of repealing the Articles. It seems to me that we can avoid a great deal of useless discussion on this subject by a very simple solution.

The Thirty-nine Articles

The Prayer Book is our book of devotions and contains all the services that are used in the Church. There is something to be said for the objection that the Articles have not a proper place in such a publication. I would therefore suggest that the General Convention might proceed as follows:

1. Change Article X of the Constitution by transferring the words referring to the Articles of Religion to the concluding clause of Article X and amending the words to read as follows:

"And provided further that the Articles of Religion as established or hereafter amended by the authority of this Church shall be printed with the Constitution and Canons."

Such a resolution was recommended to this Convention last year by the Committee appointed to consider changes in the Prayer Book. It seems to me that it should meet the wishes of all parties in the Church and place the Articles in a more fitting position than to bind them in the Prayer Book. I make this suggestion in the interest of the peace of the Church. There is no use in wasting hours discussing Articles which are capable of different interpretations. Many years ago, before the subscription to the Articles was removed in England, Dean Stanley said, "The difficulty is not one which presses upon one party only but almost equally upon all."

Solution Recommended a Year Ago

There is little use in proclaiming a desire for peace and unity in the Church if in our own Communion we set the example of division into parties. Instead of encouraging a party spirit, let us remember that liberty of opinion has always been allowed and that the world's need is not an exhibition of controversy within the Church, but of personal and loyal devotion to Christ, so that the spirit of party will not lead us to forget the spirit of a sacrificing love meant for mankind.

In deciding to ask for a Bishop Coadjutor it seems hardly necessary to state to this Convention why I did not ask for a Suffragan. When I was elected a Suffragan 17 years ago, the House of Bishops at the previous General Convention had put on record its belief that a Suffragan Bishop should have a vote. This right has been denied in successive Conventions, and especially so in the House of Deputies. All Bishops, whether Diocesan, Coadjutor, or Suffragan, are elected by their Dioceses in the same manner and they must alike have the approval of the Bishops and Standing Committees; they are consecrated by the same service, as "Bishops in the Church of God." I have always believed that it was un-Christian, un-Catholic and un-American to disfranchise Suffragan Bishops. In addition, though it is an advantage under certain conditions to elect a Bishop without the right of succession, there are serious limitations in the office of a Suffragan, as he cannot technically be assigned to duties or responsibilities that may not be changed at any moment at the desire of his Diocesan. For these reasons I could not consistently ask for the election of a Suffragan.

Election of a Coadjutor

There is also an additional reason: I do not think that the Clergy or Laity of this Diocese begin to realize the tremendous responsibilities and burdens that must necessarily rest on the shoulders of their Episcopal brethren in a large Diocese like Pennsylvania.

In order to get some knowledge of the great Missionary and administrative work of the Diocese, of which he is to be the head, my successor should now be in training. I therefore now officially request the Diocese to give its consent to the election of a Coadjutor.

My official consent to such election and the assignment of duties will make it clear to the Convention that I have done everything in my power to make it possible for you to elect the best man for such a position. He will have duties and responsibilities which will make his office one of dignity and honor, and as he becomes more familiar with his work, additional responsibilities will be added. The duties assigned to the Coadjutor being of a Missionary character indicate that one should be chosen who is a true Missionary. It would be unwise to place in such an important position any Clergyman who has shown little or no interest in Missionary work.

Should Be True Missionary

I am now sixty-one years of age, and it is manifest that the Coadjutor if he is to be my successor should be considerably younger. There would be nothing gained to the Diocese, and much would be lost, if a man is elected who in all human probability I might outlive. This is the second Diocese in importance in the American Church; it is therefore vital to elect a man of good judgment, one who can administer this great trust; it is more important to elect one who will be a true shepherd to the flock and a father to his Clergy and people; it is most important that the Bishop Coadjutor shall be a man of God. I trust and pray that the Holy Spirit will guide you to elect a Bishop who will appreciate the great history and high traditions of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, so that we may continue to dwell together in the spirit of unity and peace.

On the day of the election I hope that every Clergyman and every delegate will be present at the service, so that we may receive the Holy Communion together as a family before proceeding to the election. May God by His Holy Spirit guide us and direct us to select the one whom He has chosen.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

WILLIAM CABELL BROWN, Seventh Bishop of Virginia, died very suddenly in London, England, on July 25, 1927, in the sixty-sixth year of his age, having gone abroad five weeks previously in search of much needed rest. He was born in Lynchburg, Virginia, on November 22, 1861, receiving his early education in the public schools of Nelson County and at the University of Virginia. For seven years he taught at the Episcopal High School in Alexandria and then entered the Theological Seminary there, graduating in 1891, in which year he was ordered Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood by Bishop Whittle. From 1891 to 1914 he was a Missionary in Brazil, being one of the founders and guiding spirits in the development of that important work. When the Prayer Book and the Bible were translated into Portuguese, his exact scholarship and teaching experience were of the very greatest value, and enabled him to take a leading part. In 1914 he was recalled to Virginia as Bishop Coadjutor, being consecrated on October 28th by Bishops Tuttle, Randolph and Gibson and succeeding as Diocesan in 1919. He was elected a member of the National Council in 1919, and acted as Chairman of the House of Bishops at the General Conventions of 1922 and 1925, being Assessor to the Presiding Bishop at the time of his death.

EDWIN STEVENS LINES, Second Bishop of Newark, died at his home in Newark, New Jersey, on October 25, 1927, aged eighty-two years. He was born at Naugatuck, Connecticut, on November 23, 1845, gaining his early education in the District Schools, and later earning sufficient funds by making shoes to attend the Episcopal Academy in Cheshire and Yale University where he graduated in 1872, his theological study being at Yale and at the Berkeley Divinity School in Middletown. He was ordered Deacon in 1874 and ordained the same year by Bishop John Williams. He was Rector of Christ Church, West Haven, from 1874 to 1879, and of Saint Paul's Church, New Haven, from 1879 to 1903, being consecrated Bishop on November 18th in the latter year by Bishops Tuttle, Doane and Potter. Although the head of a large and active Diocese, he nevertheless found time and opportunity for manifold activity in extra-Diocesan fields of work, serving as Trustee for his Alma Mater and for the General Theological Seminary, as President of the Synod of the Second Province, as a member of the Board of Missions and of the National Council and on various other Committees. He believed that it is the duty of the Church to improve conditions surrounding human life, while preserving at the same time a wholesome simplicity in human living, so that his preaching was always of a religion of joy, gladness and hope, for all men, but especially for the under-privileged class so-called. And like the Saints of ancient days, he, being dead, yet speaketh.

ETHELBERT TALBOT, First Bishop of Bethlehem, died at the home of his daughter in Tuckahoe, New York, on February 27, 1928, following a paralytic stroke, aged seventy-nine years. He was born at Fayette, Missouri, on October 9, 1848, where he received his early education, and was graduated from Dartmouth College in 1870, and from the General Theological Seminary three years later. He was made Deacon in 1873 and ordained Priest the same year by Bishop Robertson. From 1873 to 1887 he served as Rector of Saint James' Church, Macon, Missouri, during which time he started several Missions in that section, as well as Saint James' Military Academy. On May 27, 1887, he was consecrated Bishop of the Missionary District of Wyoming and Idaho by Bishops Whipple, Vail and Tuttle, where he served for twenty-one years, endearing himself very greatly to all with whom he came in contact. Always active and energetic, within six years he had supervised the erection of thirty-eight Churches, as well as of the Cathedral at Laramie and the Boys' School, together with a Girls' School at Boise City and a Hospital at Wallace. In February, 1898, he became Third Bishop of Central Pennsylvania, choosing the Diocese of Bethlehem when the division was made in 1904. On February 18, 1924, by virtue of seniority, he became Presiding Bishop, serving until January 1, 1925, when that Office was made elective. He filled very many National and Provincial offices in the Church and was for many years Chairman of the General Convention Committee of Church Unity, a project always dear to his heart. He was elected to the Board of Overseers of the Philadelphia Divinity School in 1898 and served as President of the Board from 1913. At the time of his death, he was the oldest Bishop of the whole Anglican Communion, in years of Consecration. Of commanding presence and genial personality, he was perhaps the most widely known of all our Bishops.

HENRY BEARD DELANEY, Suffragan Bishop of North Carolina, died at his home in Saint Augustine's School, Raleigh, North Carolina, on April 14, 1928, in his seventy-first year. He was born at Saint Mary's, Georgia, on February 5, 1858, and worked as a mason in his early manhood. Deciding to study for Holy Orders, he went to Saint Augustine's School in 1885, being made Deacon in 1889 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1892. From 1889 to 1908, he was Principal of the School, serving also on the Commission for Work among the Colored People for fifteen years of this time. In 1908 he was appointed Archdeacon for Work among the Colored People in North Carolina and consecrated Suffragan Bishop for the same work in the Dioceses of North, South and East Carolina on November 21, 1918, by Bishops Cheshire, Tucker and Darst. At the time of his death, he was in charge of all the Colored Work in the five Dioceses included in the States of North and South Carolina.

CHARLES MENNINGERODE BECKWITH, Fourth Bishop of Alabama, died at his home in Montgomery, Alabama, on April 18, 1928, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. He was born in Prince George County, Virginia, on June 3, 1851, graduating from the University of Georgia in 1873 and from the Berkeley Divinity School in 1881. He was made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. From 1880 to 1886 he was at Saint Luke's Cathedral, Atlanta, Georgia, serving as Rector of Christ Church, Houston, Texas, from 1886 to 1892, and General Missionary in Texas from 1892 to 1895. In this latter year he became Rector of Trinity Church, Galveston, where he remained until his election as Bishop, being consecrated on December 17, 1902, by Bishops Dudley, Garrett and Sessums, in Saint John's Church, Montgomery. He served as Deputy to the General Convention for several Meetings and was elected Assistant Bishop of Texas in 1892, but declined. A born teacher, he was Principal of Sewanee Grammar School at one time and connected also with the University of the South. This teaching ability, together with his clear-cut logic and facility of expression, made him a very popular and convincing Preacher; while his administrative gifts and loyalty to the historic position of the Church, coloured by his sympathy and non-partisan friendships for all classes, resulted in overcoming to a great extent the congregational spirit of the Diocese and moulding it into a united whole. In 1897 he published A Trinity Course of Church Instruction, which is regarded as a standard.

JOSEPH SAKUNOSHIN MOTODA, First Bishop of the Japaneze Church in Tokyo, died very suddenly in Saint Barnabas' Hospital, Osaka, Japan, on April 16, 1928. Born of Christian parents, he was educated at Saint Paul's College, Tokyo, coming later to Kenyon College and later still to the Divinity School in Philadelphia, where he graduated in 1893, obtaining his degree of Ph.D. at the University of Pennsylvania through a scholarship from the Divinity School, and was ordained to the Priesthood by the Bishop of Pennsylvania in 1896. Returning to Japan, he became Principal of Saint Paul's University and of Saint Paul's Middle School in Tokyo. When, after sixty-four years of missionary work by the Church of England and our own Church, it was decided that the time had arrived for the establishment of a Native Japaneze Church he was elected on May 17, 1923, as the First Native Bishop, in charge of the Diocese of Tokyo, being consecrated on December 7, 1923, in Saint Timothy's Church, Kongo, by Bishop McKim, assisted by the Anglican Bishops of South Tokyo and of South Japan. The Presiding Bishop was the preacher. Between his election and his consecration, the great earthquake had occurred, so that much of his Episcopate was passed in rebuilding the shattered structure of his Diocese, where he has been very successful.

Of Priests of this Diocese:

JOHN JAY JOYCE MOORE, Rector Emeritus of Saint Andrew's Church, Philadelphia, died on May 11, 1927, in the seventy-first year of his age. He was born in Danville, Pennsylvania, on July 10, 1856, coming to Philadelphia in his early childhood, where he attended The Episcopal Academy and graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1876. For the next three years he attended the Divinity School in Philadelphia, being made Deacon in 1879 and ordained Priest the year following. His whole Ministry was passed in this City, his Rectorships being, 1880 at Saint Ambrose, 1883 at S. Alban, Roxborough, 1888 at The Covenant, 1910 at Saint Andrew. In 1922, the property of the latter Church was sold and the Corporation continued as Saint Andrew's Collegiate Chapel of the Divinity School in Philadelphia, the Rector having a right to a stall in the same. In November, 1926, he became Rector Emeritus. Always energetic and active, he took much temporary work during the last five years of his life.

GEORGE WILLIAM LINCOLN, a Retired Priest of this Diocese, died at his home in Germantown on July 13, 1927, aged seventy-three years. He was born in Savannah, Georgia, on October 4, 1854, graduating from Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, in 1875, and from Berkeley Divinity School at Middletown, in 1878, being ordered Deacon and ordained Priest the year following by Bishop Williams. He served at Saint Paul's Church, Windsor Locks, Connecticut, from 1877 to 1880, when he became Rector of Saint Paul's Church, Columbus, Ohio, where he remained for ten years. He was Rector of the Church of Saint John the Baptist, Germantown, in this Diocese from 1891 to 1896, and from 1905 to 1919. Between these periods he was Rector of Saint Barnabas' Church, Brooklyn, New York, from 1896 to 1900, and Rector of Saint John's Church, Newark, New Jersey, from 1900 to 1905. He was compelled to give up active Ministry in 1919 because of failing health, since which time he had acted as Librarian at the University Club.

SAMUEL HAMILL WOOD, Rector of Saint Matthias' Church, Philadelphia, died very suddenly at his home on October 23, 1927, aged fifty-one years. He had conducted the Services as usual, but was taken with a heart attack about 11 P. M., which proved fatal. He was born in Princeton, New Jersey, on June 24, 1876, receiving his early education in the Trenton Normal School. For several years he was engaged in newspaper work as Reporter and Editor, giving this up to become Private Secretary to Governor Peabody, of Colorado, and to his predecessor. Deciding to study for Holy Orders, he was graduated from the General Theological Seminary in 1912, being ordered Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. In 1915 he went to Wyoming, working in the mines at Hanna for a year without pay, in an unsuccessful attempt to bring the miners into the Church, after which he became Rector of Saint James' Church, Kemmerer. In 1916 he applied for a Chaplaincy in the Army, but failing to obtain this, he enlisted as a Regular, spending a year and a half in France. On his return in 1919, he became Assistant Minister at the Church of The Holy Apostles, being appointed Vicar of the Chapel of The Holy Communion in 1920, where he remained until 1926, when he accepted a call as Rector of the Church of Saint Matthias.

ANDREW HUSTON HAUGHEY, Rector of Saint Mary's Church, Ardmore, died very suddenly at his home early in the morning on November 2, 1927, aged forty-six years. He had conducted the Services as usual on All Saints' Day, but succumbed to a heart attack which came during the night. He was born in Portrush, County Antrim, Ireland, on January 15, 1881, graduating from Queen's College, Belfast, in 1903, and coming to this country five years later to enter on a business career. Subsequently he decided to enter the Ministry of the Baptist Church and was graduated from Drew College. During the War he was stationed at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, where he became interested in the Church, being ordered Deacon in 1919 and ordained six months later. He accepted appointment as Assistant Minister at Saint Mary's Church and was elected Rector on the death of his predecessor in the fall of 1921, having the unique privilege of serving thus in only one Parish during his Ministry. But his activities were not confined to his Parish nor to his own Church alone. His recorded reasons for applying for Ordination were "a fervent desire to render to my fellow men the highest service, out of gratitude to Almighty God for the Gift of His Love in Christ Jesus and a conviction of the worth of the Sacred Ministry; its place in the community and through the Ministry of the Church the greatest medium for service". How well he fulfilled this ideal was apparent, not alone from the crowded Church at the Burial Service, but also in his Diocesan activity by his interest in Convocation matters, and in the Executive Council, where he was a member of three Departments and Chairman of the Budget Committee, as well as by his election as President of the Main Line Federation of Churches.

Consent was given to the appointment by the Bishop of Mr. Roland S. Morris as Chancellor of the Diocese, in place of Mr. James Wilson Bayard, deceased.

The following Minute on the death of Mr. Bayard was adopted:

We, the members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, wish collectively and individually, to express in our official records our high appreciation of Mr. Bayard's noble character and of his life-long and practical devotion to the Church, and to extend to his bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy.

We clearly recognize the loyalty and devotion which Mr. Bayard gave to his parish, to his Diocese and to the Church at large. For many years he was a member of the choir of Grace Church, Mt. Airy. In 1903, he was elected to the Vestry of the same parish. In 1911, he succeeded his father as Accounting Warden, serving in that capacity until the day of his death. In the same year he was elected to represent his parish in the Diocesan Convention. In 1918, he became Chancellor of the Diocese. In 1925, he was sent to the General Convention in New Orleans as a lay deputy from Pennsylvania.

During all these years he gave freely to the Church, of his time, his talents and his means. His accurate knowledge of secular and canon laws was always at the disposal of the Church, and has been of incalculable value to the Diocese, for he served the Church, not only as Chancellor but also, as a member of the Committee on Canons and of that on Church property, and by drawing up the Charter for the Church Foundation and many other important legal documents.

In these days, when, in certain quarters, there is a disposition to tamper with the varieties of the Faith, to pare down moral standards and to remove spiritual landmarks, we realize that all churchmen owe Mr. Bayard a very real debt of gratitude, not only for what he did, but also for what he was, not only for his wisdom and efficiency but also for his noble and consistent Christian character.

February 7, 1928.—Mr. Rowland Evans was elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund.

Subject to the approval of the Bishop, Holy Trinity Church was appointed as the place of meeting for the Annual Convention and the hour, 9.30 A. M., with the understanding that parochial authority would be secured.

APPENDIX F

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the year 1927 as audited is herewith respectfully submitted.

The Diocese promised the National Council $250,000.00 toward its Missionary Budget. The National Council proportion of divisible receipts from regular sources toward this sum was $189,991.31, and the balance of $60,008.69 was raised by a special committee. The Diocese, however, as indicated on the balance sheet line 24, shows an overdraft of $14,083.81, which has been partially repaid since the books were closed, and taking into consideration unpaid loans which amount to $7,886.85 and are collectable, the net deficit of the Diocese as of January 1, 1928, would be reduced to $3,496.96. If, in addition, the Executive Council had not cancelled a loan made on account of the Sesqui-Centennial of $1,073.94 the net deficit would have been $2,423.02, as indicated in the summary following line 73.

Below is a comparative table showing the number of times remittances have been made by churches during the years 1926 and 1927. It will be noted that there was slightly less regularity of payments in 1927 as compared with 1926, and as a result the amount of interest paid on overdrafts was larger. The Diocese must pay out with almost entire regularity nearly the same sums every month, and if the parishes do not remit with like regularity the result is an overdrawing of the account which for the months during the year 1927 is shown under item 31.

The Treasurer desires to again express his grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel & Co. for the continuation of the very advantageous arrangements whereby a flexible credit to a limited amount has been extended so that overdrafts may be made, and to the Parishes and Missions as well as the financial agencies of the Diocese for the ready assistance in the preparation of the records comprising this report, and to the financial staff in the Executive Office for its efficient and faithful service throughout the year.

APPENDIX G

Report of the Executive Council

During the year the Executive Secretary, Reynolds D. Brown, resigned, to take effect January 1, 1928, and in March, 1928, Rev. A. R. Van Meter was elected under resolution that the Secretary to be elected should devote his whole time to the work of this office, and that he should combine the work of Field Secretary with that of Executive Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

The Department reports that the parish building at Collingdale has been virtually completed; a fine stone parish house for the Mission of The Ascension at Rhawnhurst has been commenced, and the Mission of The Resurrection at Englewood, between Frankford and Holmesburg, has commenced its work in a rented house, where it is hoped that a parish house will soon be erected. The parish house of S. Barnabas, Germantown, has been completed and dedicated. A parish house for S. George's, Venango, has been started, and a large addition to the Galilee Mission has been made to accommodate the Industrial Department. The Mission of The Transfiguration in South Philadelphia has been moved to a more desirable location at Seventh and Bigler Streets. A new site has been secured for S. Giles Mission, Stonehurst, a few squares from its present location at Sixty-ninth and Chestnut Streets. Plans have been adopted for the Mission of The Redeemer at Springfield. A church building has been purchased for the Polish Mission of The Holy Redeemer, 2963 Richmond Street. These numerous undertakings are, of course, a direct result of the Diocesan Campaign.

The immediate needs of the Department are money to commence a new work at Large and Comly Streets, where a fine lot has been purchased, and money to purchase a lot for a Mission in the neighborhood of Ogontz Avenue and Walnut Lane. Also there are desirable locations much needed for new Missions at Yeadon and Oakmont.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Director has been busy in many directions—visiting schools, preaching, attending faculty meetings, district meetings and convocations, and conducting parochial teacher training classes. The Bulletin issued five times a year has a circulation of 35,000. The interest in the Lenten Missionary Offering has increased so greatly that two services for its presentation will be held this year on May 13. The Department notes with pleasure an opinion favorable to week-day religious education recently given by the Department of Justice at Harrisburg. It reports that the young people's work is developing on more definite lines, and that a number of retreats have been held.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICE AND INSTITUTIONS

At the monthly meetings of the Department matters of interest have been presented by a number of leading speakers. Among the problems thus considered have been "Family Life and Divorce," by Mr. Karl de Schweinitz; "The Spiritual Dynamic of Social Service," by Mrs. John M. Glenn; "The World Court," by Mr. Clinton Rogers Woodruff; "Old Age Pensions," by Mr. de Schweinitz; "Prisons and Almshouses," by the Rev. Charles N. Lathrop; and "State Institutions," by Mrs. E. S. H. McCauley, Secretary of the Department of Welfare of Pennsylvania.

The Department is as usual coöperating with other Social Agencies through membership in the Social Service Council of the Five Dioceses in Pennsylvania; the All Philadelphia Council of Social Agencies; and the Philadelphia Federation of Churches.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

The Department of Publicity reports progress along the usual lines, and for the fifth consecutive year has not found it necessary to use any part of the appropriation made to it by the Executive Council. The three calls for the Church Extension Fund were for S. James', Langhorne, S. Mary's, Chester, and S. Barnabas, Germantown, amounting to $11,093.50. During the year 1927, 458 meetings were scheduled in the Church House.

FIELD DEPARTMENT

The Bishop appointed a Committee to raise the sum estimated at $60,000.00 by which the amounts pledged by the parishes would fall short of the $250,000.00 promised by the Executive Council to the National Council. After the Committee had begun to deliberate it was converted into the Field Department of the Executive Council.

The Department made an effort to secure the $60,000.00 above referred to, but was able to raise only a fraction of this amount; due to the generous contribution of an "anonymous friend" the full amount, however, was secured and the pledge of the Diocese for $250,000.00 redeemed shortly before the National Council closed its books for the year.

The Department is convinced, however, that this method of personal solicitation to make up a deficit is entirely undesirable. The only proper method is to try to bring the nominal givings of our people up to the requirements for the Diocese and the General Church. In order to increase interest the Department arranged for a two-day conference for clergy and laymen in October, 1927, and 120 clergy and 85 laymen attended these conferences. Following them certain members of the National Council attended vestry meetings in approximately thirty-five parishes and conferred with them for the purpose of enlisting support for the Church's program.

In spite of these efforts the pledges of the parishes for 1928 are substantially the same as in recent years, and the Council has, therefore, notified the National Council that it cannot promise for the year 1928 more than $200,000.00. This is about $15,000.00 more than the amount pledged by the parishes, and the Field Department fully concurs in the policy of the Diocese, not pledging hereafter to the National Council substantially more than the sums promised by the various parishes and missions. If this total is to be increased in the future, and it is hoped that this may be accomplished with the aid of the new Executive Secretary, it should be along the lines of increased pledges from the different parishes and missions.

The Department has recommended to the Council that in the important work of the Budget and Quota Committees the Field Department join with them in making plans for the future.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The Treasurer's report has called attention to the results of the business of the year. Receipts from parishes applying on quota were $411,699.14, as against $398,120.00 in 1926. The Lenten Offering increased from $75,188.58 in 1926 to $79,279.03 in 1927. Of this $189,991.31 was sent to the National Council, as compared to $188,896.42 in 1926, and $163,415.14 was retained for the Diocese, as against $162,639.94 in 1926.

As to the Diocesan share of the joint receipts, there was an overdraft at the end of 1927 of $14,083.81. This overdraft included a deficit of $5,251.48 from 1926. Since the books have been closed, however, receipts applicable to 1927 amounting to $3,600 have been received, and unpaid collectable loans total $7,886.85, so that against the above overdraft there are credits of $11,486.85, making a real deficit as of December 31, 1927, of $2,596.96. It is confidently believed that the entire overdraft will be made good before the end of the present year.

The Department has been wrestling with the old problem of parochial quotas and for the year 1928 decided to notify each parish and mission that if it would contribute 39 per cent of its current expenses as reported for 1926, the whole amount required for the Diocese and for our share of the work for the National Council would be raised. The rector and vestry of each parish were asked on the basis of such statement to name the Expectation for 1928. The total Expectations for the year 1928 (including thirty-seven parishes and missions which did not report at all, but which in 1927 contributed $31,000) was $384,519.00, against a total Budget of $401,342.80, or $16,842.80 short. This difference will partly be made up by miscellaneous receipts and probable balances in a few budgeted items.

REYNOLDS D. BROWN,
Executive Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION TO THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The welfare of the Church in a metropolitan diocese such as ours depends more upon the active and aggressive work carried on by the Department of Missions than on any other factor. Because in a great city diocese where the central sections become increasingly used for business purposes, and where therefore the older city parishes become, generally speaking, financially weaker, it is absolutely necessary to develop new parishes in the suburban and outlying districts. The only hope of maintaining the strength of a diocese like that of Pennsylvania is to be continually planting new missions as the population spreads, and to foster them until they become self-supporting parishes.

Within the last twenty-seven years, that is to say, during this century, the population of this Diocese has increased about a million; but the number of parishes and missions established during that period has not kept pace with the growth of the population. That is, as a diocese we have not only not been providing for the spiritual needs of our people, and for those estranged from the membership of the Christian Church; but we also have not been properly nourishing the sources of supply for the various institutions of our own diocese, and for the missionary work at home and abroad.

As we compare the number of parishes in the five counties that comprise the Diocese of Pennsylvania today with the number there were in the year 1900 we find the following results:

In Bucks County one has been added—The Redeemer, Andalusia, in 1925.

In Chester County one has been added—The Good Samaritan, Paoli, in 1903; and one has ceased to exist—S. Andrew's, West Vincent.

In Delaware County three have been added—S. Stephen's, Norwood, in 1908, Trinity, Swarthmore, in 1920, and Incarnation, Drexel Hill, in 1926.

In Montgomery County four have been added—Trinity Memorial, Ambler, in 1902, All Hallows, Wyncote, in 1909, Washington Memorial, Valley Forge, in 1911, and All Saints, Wynnewood, in 1919.

Thus there has been a gain during this century in the suburban counties of eight parishes.

In Philadelphia County nine parishes have ceased to exist since the year 1900.

S. Paul's, founded in	1785
Trinity, Southwark	1821
S. Andrew's (as a parish)	1823
Church of the Advent	1842
Church of the Evangelists	1842
S. Jude's (as a separate parish)	1848
S. Timothy's	1871
Beloved Disciple	1874
Holy Spirit

And twelve have been added:

Church of The Epiphany, Germantown	1902
S. Luke's, Philadelphia, Kensington	1905
S. Alban's Church, Olney	1907
Christ Church, Franklinville	1910
Memorial Church of S. Paul, Philadelphia	1911
S. Bartholomew's Church	1914
Church of The Epiphany, Sherwood	1919
Memorial Church of The Good Shepherd, Germantown	1921
Church of S. John the Divine (colored)	1921
Church of S. Barnabas, Haddington	1922
S. Bartholomew's Church, Wissinoming	1922
S. Nathanael's Church, Philadelphia	1923

Thus making a gain of three parishes in the county of Philadelphia in twenty-seven years, and with the eight parishes added since the year 1900 in the four counties outside the city a net gain of eleven parishes in twenty-seven years. Surely this is not a record of which we can be proud, for it means ten parishes for an increase of a million population, or one parish to every ninety thousand people.

It is true that during this century, that is, since 1900, a large number of foreigners and negroes have settled in this diocese, for whom we have established several Missions; for during the last twenty-seven years we have established one Italian Mission, three Polish Missions, and six for work among the Colored Race. It is also true that during that time we have established eighteen Missions for our own people; some of these, however, in the rural districts are very small, and will probably never become independent parishes; but there are others which we trust will soon become self-supporting.

During the last year, that is, since the presentation of our Report at the Convention of the Diocese in May, 1927, a Parish House at Collingdale has been virtually completed. A fine stone Parish House, which will form part of a handsome group of buildings for the Mission of the Ascension at Rhawnhurst has been commenced, and we trust will shortly be ready for use. The Mission of the Resurrection at Englewood, between Frankford and Holmesburg, was commenced last October in a rented house, and has already enrolled over a hundred in its Sunday School. The Diocese owns a good lot for this Mission centrally located in the midst of large building operations, where a Parish House ought soon to be erected. Will not someone kindly give us $20,000 for that purpose? The Parish House of S. Barnabas, Germantown, has been completed and dedicated. A much-needed Parish House for S. George's, Venango, has been started; and a large addition to the Galilee Mission has been made to accommodate the Industrial Department and the Galilee Home. The Mission of the Transfiguration in South Philadelphia has been moved to a much more desirable location at Seventh and Bigler Streets. A new site has been secured for S. Giles' Mission, Stonehurst, a few squares away from its present position at Sixty-ninth and Chestnut Streets. Plans have been adopted for the Mission of the Redeemer at Springfield. And a church building has been purchased for the Polish Mission of the Holy Redeemer at 2963 Richmond Street in northeast Philadelphia.

Thus, owing to the Diocesan Campaign, greater progress has been made during the season of 1927–28 than ever before in so short a time.

The Diocese possesses a splendid site quite close to the Northeast Boulevard at Large and Comly Streets, just east of Oxford Circle, where we ought to begin work at once; but we do not have the funds necessary to commence a Mission there. We ought also to purchase a lot for a Mission in the neighborhood of Ogontz Avenue and Walnut Lane, where hundreds of houses have lately been erected and hundreds more will soon be built; but again we do not have the money required to purchase a suitable lot. And the same may be said of two very desirable locations in the Convocation of Chester at Yeadon and Oakmont. There is nothing that would help the missionary work of the Diocese so much as a good sized sum—say a quarter of a million dollars, the income of which could be used for the purchase of suitable sites in neighborhoods that are rapidly developing before the price of land becomes almost prohibitive.

It is computed that the population of this Diocese is about three million souls, of whom 20 per cent, or 600,000 people, are not affiliated with any Christian Church. Surely this expresses the tremendous need for aggressive work.

Nobody who is interested in missionary endeavor in our own great country and abroad can say that we have spent too much on the work in Domestic and Foreign Missions; but it is certain that we have not developed our own Diocesan Mission field as we should. The Diocesan Campaign so wisely inaugurated by our Bishop has largely helped; but we need many hundreds of thousands of dollars more to develop the work of Church extension in the Diocese of Pennsylvania as it ought to be developed. For the benefit of the work undertaken by the National Council, as well as for the work in our own Diocese, we must nourish the missionary enterprises in the rapidly growing suburban districts of our great diocese that they may become self-supporting parishes, which will in turn help to nourish other needy fields.

If many of those who subscribed for one year toward the Diocesan Campaign would renew their contributions for the remaining four years, a most useful revenue would be received, which we sorely need to develop the missionary work of our great and quickly growing Diocese.

We have had to materially cut down the Diocesan Budget this year on account of the Expectations from the parishes and missions in the Diocese having been reduced. But we believe that when it is generally known that the divisible funds received from our parishes and missions is now divided in what seems to be the fair and wise basis of fifty-fifty, that is, half of such money received from the "Expectations" is given to the work of the general Church through the National Council, and half is kept for the work of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, that our income will increase.

We gladly avail ourselves of this opportunity to express our deep gratitude to those who subscribe to the aggressive work of the Diocese through the Church Extension Fund. We sincerely wish that we could materially increase the number of subscribers, and thereby enlarge the great usefulness of this Fund. The three calls since our last report were designated as follows:

In January, 1927, $3,575.21 for S. James', Langhorne.
In April, 1927, $3,581.66 for S. Mary's, Chester.
In October, 1927, $3,516.13 for S. Barnabas, Germantown.

In addition to these receipts, contributions were received during 1927 for Calls issued during previous years, and for Calls to be issued during 1928 amounting to $420.50, thus making the total receipts in 1927 amount to $11,093.50.

The Report of the Treasurer, and the Reports of the Deans of the six Convocations are appended.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Department of Missions,

LLEWELLYN N. CALEY, Chairman.

December 31, 1927.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

One of the outstanding happy events of the past year was the laying of the cornerstone of a large and commodious Parish Building for Trinity Church, Collingdale. For many years it has been the dream of the members of the Mission to have such a building, and through the great liberality of a Churchman of Philadelphia, this is now becoming a reality. Collingdale has greatly grown and our work is located in the most central and prominent part of the borough.

S. Joseph's Chapel, Gladwyn, built and equipped by the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, has been given over to the Diocese for a Convocational Mission.

S. Giles, Stonehurst, through its foundation club and its Easter offering, has contributed $1,109.84 to its building and mortgage fund.

The Church of the Redeemer, Springfield, has adopted a plan for a Church building and it is hoped that steps will be taken for its immediate erection. The work is most hopeful.

Ascension, Parkesburg, is holding its own under the adverse financial conditions of the town.

At S. John's, Concord, the Rev. Mr. Sanford has instituted a Home Department of twenty members and at S. Luke's, Chadds Ford, he conducts a week-day Bible Class with an average attendance of twenty.

At S. John's, Essington, there is a most hopeful Sunday School of nearly 200. The work here is a labor of love of the Rev. Frederick A. Warden, Rector of Christ Church, Ridley Park.

The Rev. John C. Runkle has resigned Kennett and become an assistant at Trinity, Wilmington. The Rev. W. C. Bellis, Jr., Rector of S. John's Church, East Mauch Chunk, has been appointed to succeed him. The happy condition that prevails at Kennett was indicated by the goodly congregation and evident mutual affection of the Missionary and the people that greeted the Dean's visitation. One person remarked, "The Church has been wondrously good to Kennett. We were sent Mr. Spalding, whom we so dearly loved; then Mr. Runkle, who did so much for the Church; and now Mr. Bellis is with us and has greatly endeared himself to us."

S. James, Prospect Park, is making great progress toward becoming an independent parish. It is hoped this consummation will be reached by January 1, 1929.

The Chapel of the Holy Sacrament, Highland Park, greatly needs enlargement or replacement. Its congregation and Sunday School have outgrown the building. With an expenditure of a modest sum of money the seating accommodations could be greatly increased and the building made more attractive.

FRANCIS M. TAITT,
Dean.

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

It is hard to decide the most important event during the past year. Was it the completion of S. Barnabas' Parish House, giving that flourishing Mission its long needed equipment? Was it the growth of the two baby Missions of Rhawnhurst and Englewood, whose reports for the first time appear among the missions of this Convocation? Was it the quiet and earnest efforts of all the missionaries, working often under difficulties from indifference and lack of equipment, but "carrying on" so efficiently and so bravely?

S. Barnabas will do well to start with, as we hope and expect that her name will soon disappear from the Missions of this Convocation. This is the first Mission to benefit from the wise plans of the Bishop, when he instituted the Diocesan Campaign. The contract for the completed Parish House was signed early in the summer, and in December the Christmas present of a Parish House, suitable for the needs of the colored people of Germantown, was presented to them by the Bishop. Then came the response from the indefatigable missionary, the Rev. E. Sydnor Thomas, who has given twenty years of his life to the upbuilding of this work. It was the response that so many had been hoping for. He promised that (God willing) S. Barnabas within two years would no longer be a Mission, but would apply to the Convention for admission as one of the Parishes of the Diocese. Coming events cast their shadows before, and S. Barnabas increased her offerings over $500 this year; and reduced the amount received from the Convocation by $100. If it were possible for the 60,000 communicants of this Diocese to visit that completed Parish House and to see that happy congregation, the enthusiasm for the campaign for Diocesan Missions and Institutions would be ten-fold increased.

The Mission of the Ascension, Rhawnhurst, was the first baby Mission to benefit by the campaign; and one beautiful Saturday afternoon in November the corner-stone of the basement of the Parish House was laid by the Bishop. So the Diocese possesses, in this growing community, a fine, large lot and a Parish House basement which, we are promised, will be completed so that the first service can be held there Easter Day, 1928. But much more important, under the splendid leadership of the Rev. Paul Micou, Rector of S. Luke's Church, Bustleton, Philadelphia, already twenty-five families are attached to the Mission. There have been two confirmations, and the communicants now number twenty-five. The Sunday-School has twenty-seven children. The age of this Mission is eighteen months. So the work, brought to the attention of the Convocation by the Rev. William McClelland and developed by the Rev. Paul Micou, has grown. This Mission, with such good foundations, with such bright prospects, should in a few years become an independent Parish.

The Mission of the Resurrection, Englewood, not yet a year old, was started by the Rev. Sydney Goodman, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, Philadelphia. A house was rented near the large lot owned by the Diocese. A Sunday-School was opened. Soon there were twenty-five. Then there were fifty. The year closed with eighty-three children. At the writing of this report, there are one hundred and two. Church services were opened in October. The average attendance has been fifty-two; and forty-five families are connected with the Mission. These families are about fifty per cent our own Church people in the neighborhood or moving out from the center of the city; and about fifty per cent from other Christian Communions joining us.

The Convocation and generous Parishes have presented the baby Mission with many useful gifts. The Convocation gave 100 chairs. Calvary Church, Conshohocken, gave an altar and four sets of colored altar hangings. Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, presented the oak lectern. S. Matthew's Church, Philadelphia, gave the prayer desk; and the Women's Bible Class of that Church the altar service book. Mr. W. F. Fell gave fifty prayer-books. S. James Church, Perkiomen, gave the altar cross; and Dr. Caley the alms basin; while the Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia, gave 150 prayer-books and hymnals. Mrs. Mary M. Garrett made a gift of the American flag; and this very generous donor has promised $2,000 for the Parish Building Fund as soon as the Mission raises $2,000.

From zero to a Sunday-School of 102 scholars in a little over six months is a record. And that Sunday-School very proudly took its offering of $150 to the Annual Presentation Service of the Bishop's Bricks Fund.

The growth of this Mission proves that the first church in a new and growing community has a tremendous advantage. This should be followed up in many places.

Langhorne, the largest of the Bucks County Missions, under the care of the Rev. Dr. Prevost, shows an increase of twenty-five per cent in communicants. Its new combined Parish House and Rectory, another result of the Diocesan Campaign, has been found exceedingly useful. The Church organ has been paid for, and the Mission shows a steady growth.

S. Andrew's, Somerton, which for most of the year was under the pastoral care of the Rev. Charles E. Spalding, shows an increase in Communicants; an increase in attendance, and in the Sunday-School. The little congregation were devoted to, and responded to the earnest efforts of, the Missionary. Many improvements were made; and a twenty per cent increase in offerings is reported. When Mr. Spalding was called to a larger work, the gap seemed impossible to fill, but the Rev. William O. Roome is proving very successful in the same field. With the rapid growth of northeast Philadelphia, Somerton has a bright future.

Trinity Mission, Solebury, reports the remarkable number of fourteen baptisms.

S. Paul's, Edgely, shows a forty per cent increase of communicants, an increased average attendance, and a growth of fifteen in the Sunday School.

Grace Church, Hulmeville, reports an increase of thirty-seven in the communicants, eleven in the families, and twenty-four in the Sunday-School. For a small place, this is a large growth, and the Rev. Dr. John R. Crosby should be happy with this response to his efforts.

S. Phillip's, New Hope. This Mission has more communicants and a larger attendance than last year.

The Bucks County work as a whole shows steady growth. The Diocese should appreciate the earnest, self-sacrificing work of Dr. Prevost and all the Missionaries in Bucks County.

Emmanuel, Quakertown, under the devoted care of the Rev. William J. Wilkie, one of our self-effacing, quiet, able men, shows a large Confirmation Class. Often these figures may not seem much, but those of us who know Bucks County realize that such a class means hard and steady work.

The Incarnation, Morrisville, shows growth everywhere. There are thirty baptisms where there were ten last year. There is a larger Confirmation Class. The increase in families amounts to eighteen. There are twenty-three more scholars in the Sunday-School. The offerings increased $564. The Rev. Seaver M. Holden, who celebrated his tenth anniversary as Missionary-in-charge, during the past year was largely instrumental, with Mr. T. B. Stockham, in getting the Diocese to place the Community House in Morrisville. This has proved of much value to the town. The Convocation is hoping that the Incarnation, like S. Barnabas', will soon see its way clear to become a self-supporting Parish.

S. Gabriel's, on the Boulevard, again shows an increase in its communicant list. Next to Morrisville and S. Barnabas', it is the largest of the Missions of the Convocation. Year by year they have reduced the amount received from the Convocation, and at the same time have tried to pay off their mortgages. A few years ago there was a mortgage of $2,200 on the Rectory. That has been paid. In 1924 there was a $12,000 mortgage on the Parish House. That has been reduced to $5,000; and the promise is, that by Easter, 1928, it will be $3,000. The Rev. William T. Metz has worked very hard for the upbuilding of this Mission; and the Parish House should be completed as soon as possible, so that the Mission can advance toward entire self-support. Surely they have tried nobly to help themselves.

S. Mary's, our Polish Mission at Manayunk, under the care of the Rev. E. M. Baczewski, has had a good year. There have been fourteen scholars added to the Week-Day School of Religious Instruction; and the offerings of the Mission have been increased from $629.58 to $1,039.57. This Mission is geratly indebted to S. Stephen's Church, Wissahickon, for the Christian courtesy that grants them the use of their buildings for Church and Week-Day School.

Ogontz Avenue near City Line. For the past three years this neighborhood has been investigated by the Convocation. Hundreds of new homes have been built. Land should be bought and work started without delay. Here is another great opportunity!

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

There has been one change in the personnel of the missionaries of the Convocation during the past year, the Rev. William Powell taking charge of Trinity Mission, Gulph Mills, in conjunction with S. Joseph's Mission, Gladwyne, in the Chester Convocation. Mr. Randall is kindly continuing to assist Mr. Powell at Gulph Mills, acting as Treasurer and Warden of the Mission. The people of the Mission have taken the responsibility for placing the grounds and property in good condition.

The Missions at Hatboro and Willow Grove have each assumed increased shares of their missionary's support.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The number of missions and institutions reporting under the Convocation of North Philadelphia is now twelve. Of these, the Galilee Mission is controlled by a board, the Church of the Messiah and S. Barnabas Church are aided parishes; S. Augustine's is under the Archdeacon for Work among Colored People and a special committee; All Souls Church for the Deaf, and the Hebrew Christian Synagogue are under commissions appointed by the Bishop and Convention; and the Polish churches of the Advent and Holy Redeemer, and the Italian church of S. Mary of the Annunciation are under the Archdeacon for Work among the Foreign Born. S. George's, Richmond, S. George's, Venango, and S. Ambrose are Missions directly under the Convocation, and our treasurer receives and pays out the money for their maintenance.

It is obvious that all missionary work in the district should come under the Convocation, and the new canon making this obligatory is a wise step toward unity and efficiency, while the personal reports of all the missionaries at the meetings cannot but increase general interest in the work.

At. S. George's, Venango, a number of memorials have been given, and the people of the community have shown a new interest in the Mission. A large organization for boys has been formed, which supplements the men's club. This club is one of the largest in the Diocese with an actual attendance of over 200 men, many of whom are in the large confirmation class.

At this Mission also has been started the only building in the Convocation to be erected this year from the funds of the Diocesan Campaign. Work was begun on the parish building on Christmas eve, and the basement and part of the first floor will be completed at a cost of about $15,000. This will give needed accommodation for the societies connected with the Mission, and a meeting place for the people of the neighborhood.

The work at All Souls Church has been affected by the Lutherans, who have begun working among the deaf in this and neighboring dioceses. This is much to be deplored, as there should be no competition in special missions of this kind; it unnecessarily hinders the cause of unity, and presents many difficulties. In the interest of efficiency and Christian comity we earnestly hope that the field will be left entirely to the older church, which has ministered to these people for over fifty years. There is, however, a new spirit of loyalty and responsibility among the members, and the good work goes on with increasing usefulness.

S. Augustine's Mission has had a remarkable development, and is well situated for continuous growth. I have personally been interested in this Mission for over twenty years, and I know the situation. There is great need for larger accommodations, and it is to be hoped that in the near future the parish house can be enlarged or a new one erected, or better still, an entire new property purchased somewhere in the neighborhood.

At S. George's, Richmond, kneeling benches have been installed in the church at a cost of $386.00 paid by the congregation. Rev. Mr. Arkin has given over twenty-five years to the development of this Mission and the community and it continues to be one of the most important places in the Diocese. Here, as in many other sections of the city, the changing tide has already set in; a number of the more influential and well-to-do families have moved away, and the population is becoming more and more Polish. This makes it increasingly difficult for S. George's to become an independent parish. The mortgage on the church property of $20,000 is still carried by the Diocese.

At S. Ambrose Mission steady progress continues, and the large organizations make a suitable parish house a necessity. We hope this will be the next building undertaken in the Convocation. During the past year extensive repairs have been made to the roof, all the stucco work has been replaced, and a new boiler installed for the heating plant. These improvements have been entirely paid for by the congregation and shows the willingness of the people to help themselves.

The Hebrew Christian Synagogue continues its quiet pioneer work at 517 York Ave. under Miss Ormsby. In missions of this kind, to other races, the growth must be slow, but foundations are being laid for the future. Those who know the problem feel in deep sympathy with this effort, and ask for your interest and prayers.

S. Mary of the Annunciation reports nearly 200 communicants, with 140 present on Easter Day, and a Sunday-School with over 100 members. The services are held in a small room, which is frequently overcrowded, and as the Mission grows, larger accommodations will be necessary.

One of the outstanding events of the past year has taken place in connection with the work among the Poles. The Diocesan Campaign has made it possible for the Diocese to provide the Polish congregation of the Holy Redeemer with a church building. A Lutheran Church on the southeast side of Richmond St. between Cambria St. and Indiana Ave. has been bought, and possession will be given in April. There is also a rectory. Repairs have already been made to the basement, and we are able to use this on week-days for the parish work, although the Sunday services will continue to be held in S. George's, Richmond, until full possession of the property is received. The amount paid for this property was $30,000, and about $2,000 was spent on repairs and alterations.

The Woman's Aid, under the leadership of Miss Laura Bell, has again given splendid assistance to the Convocation, and has raised more money than during any previous year. The pledges to the Diocesan Campaign are being redeemed, and a number of gifts for special objects have also been made.

Again we express our thanks to Mr. Casper Wister Haines, and to his sister, Miss Haines, for their hospitality in welcoming our Convocation for the annual lawn fete, which was held last June at their beautiful place, "Wyck," in Germantown.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

In the Convocation of South Philadelphia there are twenty-four places of worship in the communion of our Church. Of these, nineteen are for white people and five for colored. They are enough to satisfy any reasonable requirement; some might think that they are more than enough. Many of the parishes in this Convocation have a large part of their constituencies outside the boundaries of the Convocation. Some of them are able to carry on their work in anything like the scale to which they have been accustomed only by reason of their endowments. It should be a source of satisfaction to us that so many of our parishes have been able to stay on in this older and very necessitous part of the city, even though they must look outside their immediate neighborhoods for so many of their adherents, and must depend for maintenance on endowments created in the past, for there is a great and challenging work still to be done in Central and South Philadelphia.

There are many Church people there, who have not moved away, carried on the tide of a changing population, and they will repay the Church's shepherding. More successfully than any other Church, save perhaps the Roman Catholic Church, we have been able to hold our ground in this part of the city, which probably has witnessed a greater change in population than any other section of the city.

The Convocation of South Philadelphia reports through the Diocesan Journal over thirteen thousand three hundred communicants, or about one-fifth of the whole communicant strength of the Diocese. Of the communicants of the Convocation about thirty-eight hundred are members of chapels, or parochial missions, as they are sometimes called.

These thirty-eight hundred communicant members in the parochial missions of the Convocation of South Philadelphia alone compare very favorably in numbers with the total communicant membership of all the Diocesan missions in the five Convocations of the diocese, which altogether report just over four thousand.

If the communicants of the chapels outside this Convocation were added to those within it, the total number would considerably exceed the total communicant membership of the Diocesan missions.

These chapels, or parochial missions, are maintained without expense to the diocese, while the budget for Diocesan Missions for 1928 is eatablished at $70,723.00, which includes the salaries of the Archdeacons, automobile upkeep, repairs and replacements, and the Dean's Contingency Funds, all of which are parts of Diocesan Missions expense.

One other fact of importance should be noted, and that is that most of the chapels are strong and vigorous units of Diocesan strength, contributing very considerable sums to the Diocesan funds, and adding year by year large numbers of communicants to the Diocesan strength. I know that many of the Diocesan Missions are doing all they can do under the conditions in which they work. This comparison between parochial and diocesan missions, so far as it is a comparison at all, is made only to draw attention to the two different approaches to a common problem, and to suggest a possible line of action, by which it may be that better results can be obtained in the field of Diocesan growth.

There many strong parishes of the Diocese which have no chapels. If these parishes would consent to take over some of the Diocesan Missions, or else establish new missions of their own, the Diocese in the former case would have funds released for new work, and in the latter have established new units of strength which at present it cannot establish itself for lack of means.

And, quite apart from the money angle of the problem, the parish which added the care and upbuilding of a chapel to its other activities, would find its own strength not lessened thereby, but augmented (for there is "that scattereth and yet increaseth"); would find an outlet in missionary zeal and unselfish service for members not at present actively at work within the parish; and would find a deep satisfaction in the actual creation of and the direct responsibility for a new unit of the Church's life, which contributions to work done vicariously cannot bring.

Then, too, the contributions which a parish is willing to make to the upbuilding of the life of its own chapel are always much greater and more readily given than are those made to Diocesan Missions.

The life of the mission itself would be vitalized and tremendously strengthened by the injection into it of the strong life currents of interest and devotion of the mother church.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania long since has been committed to the policy of parochial missions; any parishes adopting the plan will rejoice at the results; while the missions, no longer feeling themselves isolated and apart from the main avenues of life, as is so often the case with them, will respond in vital growth to the stimulus of intimate association with a larger parish life than its own.

The item of greatest practical interest in the Convocation is that a large plot of ground has been purchased out of the Diocesan Campaign Fund for the Chapel of The Transfiguration, at Seventh and Bigler Streets. The Chapel is now being moved to the new site.

Through the kindness of the Rev. John E. Hill and the Vestry of All Saints', a Sunday-School for colored children is being held in All Saints' parish house, Eleventh Street and Snyder Avenue. There is an average attendance of thirty-three. The school is full of life and promises well for the future.

An evening service has been begun with encouraging results. Most of those who attend are young people, who can be trained as future church members.

There is a parish visitor who is paid $360.00 a year through the Department of Missions.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The status of this Convocation remains as it was last year as to the number of missions. The work has gone with vigor on the part of all the missionaries.

The Holy Comforter Mission has taken a bold step towards solving the difficulty in which it has found itself through the removal of its constituency to other parts of the city and the invasion of the colored people.

The Vestry and congregation have decided to sell the present site and move to some place, as yet undecided, in the near suburbs, whither so many of its people have moved. The congregation has given its consent and the property is for sale. Before another year is past, it is confidently expected that this old parish will be established on a new site, where the church has opportunities that are denied to it on the present site.

S. Titus' Mission has done good work under Mr. Hopkin for the past year, and the prospects are brightening in that part of the city. A large development immediately in front of the Church is projected, and the promise for the mission's usefulness very considerably enhanced.

S. Monica's Mission is facing the same difficulty that troubles other churches. The colored people in that vicinity have been forced away from there and the congregation almost all come from a distance by car. A committee of the Convocation is considering the possibility of a new site in some section where the colored people predominate, and opportunity for expansion is afforded. There are several such sites in West Philadelphia in the Twenty-fourth Ward, where police report "more colored people have moved in, than any ward in the city, in the past two years."

Before another Convention, we hope that this problem will be solved. The property of the Mission has steadily grown in value, so that the financial question as to removal and re-establishment would be almost entirely taken care of with the sale of the present site.

S. Cyprian's Mission continues to grow under Rev. Arthur Moore's guidance and with the erection of the second story to the present walls, some time in the near future, would enable a much more vigorous work to be undertaken. Large numbers of colored people are moving in here and buying their own houses, which will insure continuity in the future for this work.

The projected city sewer improvements will alter the whole life and develop a much more stable, comfortable, and uplifting atmosphere for this whole district in which S. Titus' and S. Cyprian's Missions are situated.

WILLIAM J. COX,
Dean of the Convocation of West Philadelphia.

GEORGE HALL, Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE FIELD DEPARTMENT

The 1927 Quota of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the Maintenance Budget of the National Council was $316,800.00. In compliance with the action of the last General Convention the Executive Council had to notify the National Council in January how much it expected to give toward the Quota. The pledges from the parishes were under $200,000.00 and therefore more than a hundred thousand dollars short of our Quota. This seemed so great and distressing a shortage that the Council pledged $250,000.00 on faith and requested the Bishop to appoint a Committee to raise the difference ($60,000.00) between the amounts pledged by the parishes and the figure decided on by the Council as that which the Church could expect from the Diocese.

The Committee at once realized that the problem was much larger than the raising of a considerable sum of money as an emergency measure. It ran deep into the question of the relation of the Diocese to the work of the whole Church. It was evident that there should be a permanent committee to function as a "Field Department of the Executive Council", and in due course this committee was designated as such.

It seemed clear to the Department from the first that the method of personal solicitations to make up a deficit (which we all knew from the start was going to exist) was neither dignified, helpful, nor sound business. It simply meant going on year by year pretending that a chronic condition was an emergency. The sound principle is rather to bring the normal annual givings of our people up to the normal requirements of the General Church for the maintenance of her work. This we have not yet done. Until we can do so the Department believes that it is sounder business to admit partial failure by confining our pledges to the National Council to the amount of our "Expectations."

This admission is to be construed not as a limit of ability but as a confession of failure of our will to do, for the Department is convinced that the ability to give the full amount is here and can be secured if only we can stir up the wills of our people by information and understanding. Perhaps not all at once, but gradually, with patient, persistent and sympathetic effort the Church's Program can be so commended to our people as to win for it the united and generous support of all and make possible the allocation of a larger proportion of the total givings of our people to the work of the National Church. In pursuance of this purpose the Department arranged for a series of Conferences for the clerical and lay leaders of our parishes and missions.

CONFERENCES AT THE CHURCH FARM SCHOOL.

With the personal invitation of the Bishop to each of the clergy and to representatives of every parish and mission there was held October 26th to 28th a Conference for Clergy, and on October 28th to 30th a like Conference for Laymen. A large number attended, 120 clergy and 85 laity, respectively. The interest of the members was marked. Members of the Field Department of the National Council ably carried out a program presenting the general work of the Church, together with suggestive methods for disseminating the information throughout the parishes. Members of Diocesan Departments described the work within the area of our own special responsibility.

VESTRY CONFERENCES

During the six weeks following members of the National Council attended Vestry meetings in approximately 35 parishes, conferring with the members regarding the ways of informing their congregations and of thus eliciting support for the work both of Diocese and General Church. The men were most cordially received wherever they went.

FULL EXPECTATION TO NATIONAL COUNCIL MET

In the fall the Department addressed itself to the task of raising the $60,000.00 referred to above by a system of personal solicitations, but was able to secure only a fraction of the sum needed. Due to the generous contribution of an anonymous friend the full amount was subscribed a short time before the National Council closed its books. While thoroughly grateful to the donor, this experience led the Department to feel all the more strongly the weakness of the emergency method, and the necessity of working to bring the normal givings up to the level of the Church's askings.

EXPECTATION FOR 1928

In line with all this, the Council has felt obliged to pledge to the National Council for 1928 only the amount of the pledges received from the parishes, approximately $200,000.00. This is fifty thousand less than last year and more than a hundred thousand less than the amount asked by the General Church. It will doubtless be a serious disappointment to many in the Diocese who are eager that Pennsylvania should do its full share. But we must translate this eagerness into efforts that will lead every communicant to feel a personal responsibility for the Church's whole program and a determination to carry it out.

APPENDIX K

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese

I have called attention in previous reports to a Canon of this Diocese that requires the registrar to acquire, if possible, the registers of parishes that have ceased to exist.

The registers of St. John's Church, Northern Liberties, are among those I have been trying to obtain possession of for many years, but, up to the present time, I have been unsuccessful in my efforts to learn where these old records are located. As some compensation for what I hope is only a temporary loss, I am glad to report that I discovered only a few weeks ago that copies of all the registers of this old parish were made some years ago, during the rectorship of the Reverend Edwin Lane, for the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania. The collections of this Society may be seen in the building of the Pennsylvania Historical Society, Thirteenth and Locust Streets. To the many persons who have been seeking information in these registers and who have been in correspondence with me for this purpose, I am happy to make known this discovery.

If anyone who reads this report has knowledge of the present whereabouts of St. John's old registers or of one register of the Church of the Advent which is missing, this information will be greatly appreciated.

The necessary routine work of this office is much the same year after year and many hours of my time are spent in making searches of the records in my keeping and in answering letters of inquiry from all parts of the United States. Some of these letters from the far West are more than usually interesting, as the writers ask for information about bishops, priests and laymen of this diocese who were instrumental in founding and building up the Church in the Great West. Correspondence of this kind is valuable because it brings to light the fact that this old Diocese of Pennsylvania has been a greater factor than perhaps we imagine in the making of the Church of the western States of the Union.

I take this opportunity to thank the Clergy who have kindly sent their parish papers for filing in this office.

A. H. HORD,
Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

WHEREAS, The Corporation is the owner of the premises hereinafter described and is maintaining the church (and other buildings) thereon erected and is therein holding service for the public worship of Almighty God according to the doctrine and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America and is there carrying on parochial work in the usual way; and

WHEREAS, The Corporation, in addition to the ownership of said premises, is trustee of various trusts created from time to time for purposes germane to the charter of the Corporation; and

8. If for any reason at the termination of the lease there should be an omission or failure to convey, then this lease shall continue for another such period unless terminated prior thereto as herein provided.

9. In the event of the failure on the part of the Corporation for any cause to accept a reconveyance of the premises herein conveyed the said premises and any and all other property formerly belonging to the corporation shall be retained in the possession of the Foundation and used in accordance with the legal and proper objects and purposes thereof without any action on the part of the Corporation.

The Committee appends, as a matter of history worthy of preservation, a list of churches within the city of Philadelphia, which in the last fifty years or so have been moved or become extinct.

1. Church of the Holy Spirit, 11th St. and Snyder Ave., built 1890, became amalgamated with All Saints Church, in 1910.

2. The Seaman's Mission, started in 1849 as a floating chapel, then as a Church, at Catharine and Swanson Sts., then to a building erected for the purpose at Front and Queen Sts., now forming a chapel in connection with the Seaman's Institute at Second and Walnut Sts.
3. Trinity Church, Southwark, built in 1821 at Third and Catharine Sts., moved to Logan and merged with Zion Church in 1919.
4. The Church of the Evangelists began on Christian St., near 10th, in 1837; moved in 1839 to 5th St., near Catherine above 7th in 1856, in large two-story church which was subsequently torn down with the exception of the tower, and a new one erected on the same site. This was sold in 1922 and the proceeds given to the Diocese, and the parish became extinct.
5. The Church of the Ascension, organized first under the name of All Souls Church, reorganized as the Church of the Ascension, in a building on Lombard St. above 11th St. in 1833; moved in 1885, and new Church erected on Broad St. below South St. Name changed in 1918 to S. Mary's, and became the Pro-Cathedral of the Diocese.
